Meet Bronsyn Hand

9-year-old Bronsyn Hand now has the confidence to take part in swimming lessons, thanks to an Activity Fund grant from the Halberg Foundation.

The Temuka local has a visual impairment, which made group swimming lessons difficult as Bronsyn would struggle to see the instructor at the side of the pool.

With the support of the Halberg Foundation, Bronsyn has been able to receive one-on-one swimming lessons, with coach Casey.

Casey gets in the water with Bronsyn and instructs him so that he is able to learn effectively. His swimming has improved immensely and he can now swim several different strokes and longer distances than before.

Mum Mary says "His confidence has skyrocketed and he is partaking in different sports now as well."
